

Activity 1: What are priority needs in our community?

Have individuals write post its on the wall. Organize by topic. Review as a group.

Example Output:

Example Key Local Priorities: Meeting participants identified the following high priority needs of older adults in our community:

Activity 2: What are the key elements of the “ideal [Community]” to support these priority needs?

Have individuals write post its on the wall. Organize by topic. Review as a group.

Example Output:

Example: In an ideal [our community], the following would exist to enable older adults to age and thrive

Activity 3: Assets and Gaps Analysis

What are the assets that exist within [our community] today that align with those key elements? What are the gaps that exist that limit [our community] from more and fully holistically offering services and supports within those key elements? Have individuals post assets and gaps on the wall. Synthesize the full list after the meeting and share back with the group.

Example Output:

| Key Components of Our Desired Community (Use as Categories) | Existing Community Assets | Notable Gaps |
|--|---------------------------|--------------|
| Caregiver Support | | |
| Housing Diversity and Affordability | | |
| Transportation | | |
| Awareness, Knowledge, Communication About/ Access to Resources | | |
| Care Coordination / Navigation of Services, Collaboration | | |
| Volunteerism and Workforce | | |
| Self-management tools and resources | | |
| In Home Supports | | |
| Education and Planning for Needs | | |
| Mental Health Capacity and Resources | | |
| Unique Populations (cultural, LGBT, Veterans) | | |

